

Seattle Special Education PTSA

For Students, Parents and Staff who care for learners with special needs

The Seattle Special Education PTSA advocates for all students who receive special education services in the Seattle Public Schools District by:

- Helping families navigate the educational system
- Partnering with parents and educators to advocate for improvements in special education service delivery
- Providing educational resources to our members

We hope you will join our advocacy community!

To join, please fill out the form below and hand to a Board member or mail to:
